

Harrison Davis

Qualifications Summary

Harrison has eight years of experience in general accounting in the Software as a Service and healthcare administration fields. He has led and performed all phases of the month-end close process including revenue recognition and crafting journal entries and has assisted finance and management teams with reporting and forecasting tasks.

Core Expertise

Accounts Payable • Accounts Receivable • Journal Entries • Revenue Recognition • Payroll Processing • Monthly Financial Reporting • Prepaid Expenses • Process Improvements • B&O and Personal Property Tax

Professional History

EnergySavvy (Uplight)	Senior Accountant	2014 – 2019
CorVel	Staff Accountant	2013 – 2014
Barry Crivello, CPA	Tax Intern	2012
VITA Income Tax Assistance	Volunteer	2012

Accomplishments

- Successfully oversaw all phases of the accounting process for fast-paced and fast-growing tech startup for five years.
- Implemented and created processes and best practices for company credit card program and expense reimbursement software, leading to faster payments to employees.
- Cut month-end close time in half for growing business.
- Kept thorough and structured records leading to clean and quick annual audits.
- Worked across departments to revamp monthly invoicing process and flow of information related to invoicing leading to a sharp decrease in invoicing times.
- Overhauled prepaid expense, asset, and deferred revenue schedules to create more sustainable tracking systems for a company that had recently doubled in size.

Education / Licenses

- Bachelor of Science – Accounting, University of Oregon

Software

- QuickBooks Pro Online, QuickBooks Online Accountant
- ADP Payroll & Paychex Payroll
- Concur
- Salesforce
- Microsoft Office Suite